Draft Key performance Indicators for Road Death Investigation

National Standards and Quality Assurance

1. Are there national standards agreed with road death investigation?
2. Are impairment tests mandatory for fatal crashes?
3. Does the collision report form include impairment testing?
4. Is there a national collision investigation training programme?
5. Do the police have a policy to treat road deaths as unlawful killings, until contrary is proven?
6. Are the police required to pass their investigation file to the prosecution authority to make the charging decision?
7. Is there a national collision investigation working group? If so, does it include representatives of victim NGOs?
8. Is collision investigation included in any road safety plan?
9. Has road death investigation process been reviewed recently, i.e. in the last three years?
10. Are police able to access Event Data Recorders?

Treatment of the Bereaved

11. Are there guides for bereaved families that explain the collision investigation?
12. Are the police responsible for keeping victims informed of the investigation progress?
13. Are the police responsible for signposting bereaved families to support services?

Prevention

14. Is there any collision investigation research programme or department that is focused on preventing crashes?
